

I wish to thank the Canadian Psychological Association for conferring on me the CPA John C. Service Member of the Year Award. It is indeed an honour to receive an award dedicated to Dr John Service, who epitomizes dedication to furthering the future of the psychology profession. As Dr Jennifer Frain, current CPA President has noted in her communications in Psynopsis and her presidential address, advocacy within and for the profession of psychology is a rewarding part of all of our work.

Lorne Sexton