

McGILL UNIVERSITY – Tenure Track Position in COUNSELLING PSYCHOLOGY,
Department of Educational & Counselling Psychology,
Faculty of Education (<http://www.mcgill.ca/edu-ecp/>)

The Department of Educational and Counselling Psychology invites applications for a tenure-track position in Counselling Psychology at the Assistant Professor rank starting as early as May 1, 2014. The Counselling Psychology Program offers three degrees: two M.A. non-thesis programs (internship and research) and a Ph.D. program accredited by the Canadian Psychological Association and the American Psychological Association. The programs operate from a scientist-practitioner model.

We are searching for a candidate with a doctoral degree in counselling psychology or a related discipline who shows strong evidence of scholarly productivity, the development of a coherent and promising program of research consistent with a research-intensive university, and a record of successful teaching. The ability to teach statistics, expertise working with adolescents and children, and license eligibility in Quebec are all assets. Salary will be negotiable, according to qualifications and experience.

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. To ensure full consideration, all materials should be submitted by February 10, 2014.

Persons wishing to be considered for this position should submit electronically an application containing the following documents:

- a description of their program of research
- a statement of teaching philosophy and interests
- a curriculum vitae
- sample publication(s)
- three (3) letters of reference

Please direct your application to: ecp@mcgill.ca (please include “Counselling Psychology Search” and your name in the subject field). Further inquiries can be directed to ecp@mcgill.ca.
