

McGILL UNIVERSITY – Tenure Track Position in SCHOOL/APPLIED CHILD PSYCHOLOGY,
Department of Educational & Counselling Psychology,
Faculty of Education (<http://www.mcgill.ca/edu-ecp/>)

The Department of Educational and Counselling Psychology invites applications for a tenure-track position in School Psychology/Applied Child Psychology at the Assistant Professor rank starting as early as May 1, 2014. The School/Applied Child Psychology Program offers a Ph.D. program accredited by the American Psychological Association. The program operates from a scientist-practitioner model.

We are searching for a candidate with a doctoral degree in school psychology or a related discipline who shows strong professional identity as a school psychologist, evidence of scholarly productivity, development of a coherent program of research consistent with a research-intensive university, and a record of successful teaching. Experience as a practicing school psychologist is desirable. Eligibility and commitment to achieving license in Quebec are critical. Salary will be negotiable, according to qualifications and experience.

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. To ensure full consideration, all materials should be submitted by February 10, 2014.

Persons wishing to be considered for this position should submit electronically an application containing the following documents:

- a description of their program of research
- a statement of teaching philosophy and interests
- a curriculum vitae
- sample publication(s)
- three (3) letters of reference

Please direct your application to: ecp@mcgill.ca (please include “School/Applied Child Psychology Search” and your name in the subject field). Further inquiries can be directed to ecp@mcgill.ca.
