

FEBRUARY is Psychology Month

Psychology is for Everyone

Join Us!
Celebrate Psychology Month!

Help us celebrate the role of psychology in care and service delivery at Forensic Psychiatric Services. Throughout February, Psychology will host a variety of events, and others are available free of charge in the community.

Please help us spread the word that “Psychology is for Everyone!”

Tuesday, February 4 th	Manage your stress! Take some time out and have a coffee on Psychology!!	0800 – 0900 hrs	Birch Building Foyer, Forensic Psychiatric Hospital
1 st week of February	Beat the Meeting Blues! Psychology will supply the goodies for Clinic staff!!	Times Vary	Regional Clinics
Wednesday, February 12 th	Psychology Rounds: “The Assessment and Management of Risk for Honour Based Violence”. Presenter: Randy Kropp, PhD, R.Psych	0930 – 1030 hrs	Room A1707, FPH / Videoconference to Forensic Clinics
Wednesday, February 19 th	Psychology Rounds: “When Things Go Sideways: An Introduction to Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) Services”. Presenter: Barry Cooper, PhD, R.Psych	0930 – 1030 hrs	Room A1707, FPH / Videoconference to Forensic Clinics
Wednesday, February 26 th	Psychology Rounds: “Posttraumatic Stress Disorder: A Review of Cognitive Processing Therapy and Prolonged Exposure Interventions”. Presenter: Shauna Darcangelo, PhD, R. Psych	0930 – 1030 hrs	Room A1707, FPH / Videoconference to Forensic Clinics

For a list of community events go to: <http://www.psychologists.bc.ca/news-events>