

PRIME MINISTER • PREMIER MINISTRE

June 17–19, 2022

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to extend my warmest greetings to everyone attending the Canadian Psychological Association's (CPA) 83rd Annual National Convention.

This event provides an important platform for scientists, practitioners and students in the field of psychology to discuss current research and share insights and best practices. I am certain that delegates will make the most of the many educational opportunities planned for the next three days as well as the chance to network with their peers from across the country.

I would like to commend the CPA for its commitment to promoting excellence in psychological research, education and practice. It continues to be a challenging time for planning and hosting events. That is why I would also like to thank the organizers for offering this conference in both in-person and virtual formats and for putting together an informative and rewarding program for everyone involved.

Please accept my best wishes for a productive convention in Calgary.

Sincerely,

The Rt. Hon. Justin P. J. Trudeau, P.C., M.P.
Prime Minister of Canada
