

Psychology Month February 2014

Free Public Presentations

Tuesday, January 28, 2014 at 6:30pm

Helping Children to Become Social "Humans": A

Relational Approach to Bullying Presented by Dr. Jacqueline Goodwin, West Royalty Elementary School. (Storm Date: February 3rd)

Wednesday, February 12, 2014 at 7 pm

Tough Guise 2: Violence, Manhood, and American Culture,

a Jackson Katz film. McDougall Hall 242, University of PEI. Everyone welcome for film screening, discussion, and light refreshments. Sponsored by: PASS (Psychology in the Arts and Sciences Student Society); Premier's Action Committee on Family Violence Prevention; PEI Interministerial Women's Secretariat (Storm Date: February 13th)

Friday, February 14, 2014 at 3 pm

Abortion in PEI: Understanding for a Change. Presented by Dr. Colleen MacQuarrie . UPEI campus, Memorial Hall room 215

Thursday February 20th at 7 pm

Parenting: the hardest job you will ever have. Presented by Dr. Nadine Dewolfe (Psychologist) & Dr. Kathy Bigsby (Pediatrician), Spring Park United Church

Thursday, February 27, 2014 at 10 am

Goal Setting Presented by Dr. Abderrahmane Sahouli. This session is open to clients who have been referred by Physicians and Nurses within the Primary Health Network in Montague. However, people interested should call Dr. Sahouli at 838-0960 and leave their names and phone number. An additional session for the general public could be planned and registrants would be contacted about the date and location of the presentation.