Message from the Guest Editor

from page 4

References, links and resources

Mental health consequences and interventions for COVID-19: What we know and where we need to go

from page 10

References, links and resources

REFERENCES

39 Pfefferbaum, B., & Shaw, J. A. Practice parameter on disaster preparedness. Journal of the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, 52(11), 1224-1238. DOI:10.1097/jaac.2013.08.014

The psychosocial effects of COVID-19 on Canada's aging population
from page 12

References, links and resources

https://doi.org/10.7860/JCDR/2014/10077.4828

Wellness Together Canada: Psychologists leading Canada’s COVID-19 mental health response
from page 14

References, links and resources

https://doi.org/10.1037/ps201000031
Social inequities highlighted in the crux of the COVID-19 pandemic: A wake up call to our profession
from page 17

References, links and resources

Substance use and COVID-19: What do psychologists need to know and how can they Help?
from page 18

References, links and resources

Social distancing emotions: A new kind of (mal)adaptive shyness resulting from COVID-19

from page 20

References, links and resources

Supporting children, teens, and families with telehealth interventions

from page 24

References, links and resources

1 New research shows two-thirds of Ontarians feel that the mental health impacts of COVID-19 are going to be serious and lasting. (2020, May 6). Retrieved May 28, 2020, from https://amho.ca/mhw-poll/

Bending the Family Violence Curve

from page 25

References, links and resources

Supporting parent healthcare workers and their children during COVID-19
from page 26

References, links and resources

At a loss for words: Responding to language barriers in mental health care
from page 32

References, links and resources

