*Canadian PsychologyIncoming Editor: Daniel Voyer, PhD
Impact Factor: 1.429

The journal publishes generalist articles in areas of theory, research, and practice that are of interest to a broad cross-section of psychologists.

Canadian Psychology is published in partnership with the Canadian Psychological Association.Learn More

Daniel Voyer, the new Editor of Canadian Psychology, is encouraging original submissions for consideration. The journal is an official scientific publication of the Canadian Psychological Association and publishes generalist articles in areas of theory, research, and practice that are of interest to a broad cross-section of psychologists. The journal publishes systematic reviews and meta-analyses relevant to theory or research in basic—not just applied—areas like:

- neurosciences
- cognitive
- perception
- history
- theoretical systems
- quantitative
- developmental
- social
- personality
- clinical
- counseling
- educational and school
- industrial/organizational
- community

The Editor is interested in original, empirical contributions if large-scale work is involved and the research is of direct relevance to the discipline as a whole.

We hope you will consider submitting to Canadian Psychology, and we invite you to take a look at our webpage at <http://www.apa.org/pubs/journals/cap/>.
