

PUBLICATIONS AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE

GENERAL

A Chronicle of the Work of the CPA 1938 – 2010 (2012) 462 pages; $30.00 for CPA members, $40.00 for non-members

Code Comparison: The Canadian Code of Ethics for Psychologists Compared with the APA and AASPPB Codes (2004) – 126 pages; $10.00 for CPA members, $15.00 for non-members.

Companion Manual to the Canadian Code of Ethics for Psychologists (2001) – 271 pages; $30.00 for CPA members, $40.00 for bookstores, $45.00 for others. This manual describes how the Code was developed, reprints the Code with explanatory comments, demonstrates the ethical decision-making process, provides numerous vignettes of ethical dilemmas, provides extensive bibliography, and reprints other CPA ethics documents.

The Canadian Code of Ethics for Psychologists First Revision (2000) – 32 pages, $10.00 for CPA members, $15.00 for non-members

Promoting Reading Success – Phonological Awareness Activities for the Kindergarten Child (1998) – 40 pages; 1 copy $10.00, 2-10 copies $9.00 (for bulk orders, please contact CPA) Marvin L. Simner, PhD., CPA Section on Psychologists in Education

Promoting and Prevention Early School Failures – Classroom Activities for the Preschool Child (1995) – 53 pages; 1 copy $10.00, 2-10 copies $9.00 (for bulk orders, please contact CPA) Marvin L. Simner, PhD., CPA Section on Psychologists in Education

Promoting Skilled Handwriting (2003) – 46 pages; 1 copy $10.00, 2-10 copies $9.00 (for bulk orders, please contact CPA) Marvin L. Simner, PhD., CPA Section on Psychologists in Education

Working with the Media – A Guide for Psychologists (1995) – 18 pages; first copy free for CPA members, additional copies, $3.00, non-members $5.00

Planning a Career in Psychology – A Canadian Perspective for University Bound and Beginning University Students (2009) – 20 pages; $5.00 for CPA members, $7.00 for non-members

STANDARDS AND GUIDELINES

Ethical Guidelines for Supervision in Psychology: Teaching, Research, Practice and Administration (2009) – 12 pages; $15.00 for CPA members, $20.00 for non-members

Guidelines for Ethical Psychological Practice with Women (2007) – 42 pages; $10.00 for CPA members, $15.00 for non-members

Professional Practice Guidelines for School Psychologists in Canada (2007) – 42 pages; $15.00 for CPA members, $20.00 for non-members

Practice Guidelines for Providers of Psychological Services (2001) – 13 pages; $10.00 for CPA members, $15.00 for non-members

Guidelines for Psychologists Addressing Recovered Memories (2001); $8.00 for CPA members, $10.00 for non-members

Guidelines for Non-Discriminatory Practice (2001); $8.00 for CPA members, $10.00 for non-members

Guidelines for Advertising Pre-School Screening Tests

(Adopted 1990, published 1991) – 16 pages, $3.00 for CPA members, $5.00 for non-members

Recommendations by the Canadian Psychological Association for Improving the Safeguards that Help Protect the Public Against Test Misuse (1994) – 28 pages; CPA members $3.00, others $5.00. Marvin L. Simner, PhD, CPA Section on Psychologists in Education

REPORTS AND POSITION PAPERS

A Profile of Canadians Consumers of Psychological Services (August 1997) – 37 pages; $10.00 for CPA members, $15.00 for non-members

Some Publications are also available on-line free of charge, please visit the publications section of the CPA website:
<http://cpa.ca/cpastore/purchasecpapublications/>

* Indicates publications that are also available in French

 Prices effective January 1, 2013