

The Family Psychology section of CPA is pleased to announce a new award. The objective of this award is to acknowledge the importance of family psychology by recognizing outstanding contributions to the creation and application of family psychology knowledge in Canada.

2023 Family Psychology Master's Thesis/Doctoral Dissertation Award

This award recognizes outstanding scholastic promise in research on the family. Students having completed their Master's thesis or Doctoral dissertations in the previous two-three years are eligible to apply (2020, 2021, 2022). Applicants are invited from all relevant disciplines. Faculty and self-nominations are equally encouraged.

Application Requirements:

- Confirmation of current Family Psychology section membership
- Applicant's name, address, email address, and phone number
- Advisor's name, address, email address, and phone number
- A letter of recommendation from the advisor indicating the nature of the applicant's contribution to the development of the research and the perceived contribution of the study to the field of investigation
- A 2-5 page abstract of the thesis or dissertation
- A link to the full thesis or dissertation

APPLICATIONS: Applications are due to the Awards Committee by April 15, 2023. Please send nominations to Dr. Jen Theule [Jen.Theule@umanitoba.ca]. The award recipient will be notified by June 1, 2023. A public announcement of the recipient of the award will be made at the Family Psychology Section Annual Meeting at the 2023 annual CPA convention.