

March 2011 Student Representative Profile

Greenly Ho, Graduate Student Representative

Program:

Ph.D., Clinical Psychology, Simon Fraser University

Research or Clinical Interests:

Pediatric psychology (impact of life-threatening and / or chronic illnesses on children and their families as well as pediatric palliative care) and cross-cultural research and practice.

Future Plans:

To work in a pediatric hospital as a pediatric health psychologist, as well as working with ethnic minority families and families from non-English-speaking backgrounds.

How long have you been a campus representative?

Since 2003!

What motivated you to become a campus representative?

To promote the work of CPA to students in my department, and to liaise with other graduate students in psychology all over the country.

What you have accomplished as a campus representative?

Communicating with students in my department regarding CPA activities and advising students on graduate school-related issues.

Any useful tips?

If you can, attend the annual CPA convention! It is a great opportunity to network with other professionals and students in the field, and to learn about what psychologists in our country have accomplished.
