

Faculty of Education

Professor of Professional Practice or Clinical Professor in Counselling Psychology

The Faculty of Education, Simon Fraser University, seeks applications for a .60 2-year renewable position for a Professor of Professional Practice or Clinical Professor in the Counselling Psychology program, dedicated to the Surrey Anti-Gang Family Empowerment (SAFE) Program in our SFU Surrey Counselling Centre. Start date: As soon as mutually convenient.

Qualifications

- Registration with relevant professional body (BCACC, CCPA, or BC College of Psychologists)
- Minimum 5 years clinical practice with children, youth and families
- Experience conducting clinical supervision

Responsibilities

- Provide psychotherapy (individual and family) to children, youth and families referred to the SFU Surrey Counselling Centre
- Supervise Master's level counselling trainees as they conduct psychoeducation and psychotherapy individually or in groups with children, youth and families at the SFU Surrey Counselling Centre
- Liaise with community, municipal, provincial and federal agencies to coordinate the Faculty of Education's participation in the SAFE Program

Assets

- Registration with BC College of Psychologists or eligibility preferred
- Experience leading applied research in counselling processes or outcomes
- Experience developing or delivering psychotherapy groups with a strengths and resilience-based approach
- Knowledge of Surrey-based social and health services and/or school
- Experience working with clients of diverse and marginalized backgrounds including Indigenous and newcomer clients
- Capacity to practice and supervise from a multicultural social justice perspective
- Able to contribute to Faculty priorities of Equity, Indigeneity and Inquiry
- Knowledge of gang prevention research and practice preferred

Located in the Greater Vancouver area, SFU's Faculty of Education is committed to scholarly excellence, leading-edge pedagogy, innovative curriculum, engagement with teachers, and a participatory democratic culture. We offer programs on three campuses in Burnaby, Surrey, and downtown Vancouver (<http://www.sfu.ca>) and work with learning communities, school districts, institutions of higher education and industry partners throughout British Columbia. The Faculty has an outstanding record in research grants and publications, and in the design and delivery of innovative community-based programs in teacher education and professional development. As a relatively small, generalist counsellor education program, we seek candidates who are able to contribute in these areas and have interests in education across disciplinary boundaries, in keeping with the non-departmental organization of the Faculty.

SFU is a university that serves students of diverse ethnic, cultural, linguistic and international origins and, therefore, interests and or experience in working in multicultural and international settings with students of diverse backgrounds is a desired attribute of applicants.

Applicants should email three separate files (Word or PDF) to educ_appointments@sfu.ca:

- A signed application letter that describes the applicant's qualifications and teaching experience, and potential contributions to the wider Faculty, as well as names and contact information of three referees. (If unable to send an application letter with a scanned signature, a signed original should be mailed to: Devi Pabla, c/o Chair, Appointments Committee, Faculty of Education, Simon Fraser University, 8888 University Drive, Burnaby, BC Canada V5A 1S6).
- A current curriculum vitae
- A scholarly publication

Deadline for applications is Friday, April 5, 2019.

Only short-listed candidates will be contacted. Please do not ask referees to send letters of reference. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Simon Fraser University is committed to employment equity and welcomes applications from all qualified women and men, including visible minorities, persons of aboriginal heritage, persons with disabilities, and LGBTQ-identified persons. The position is subject to availability of funding and final approval by the SFU Board of Governors. Under the authority of the University Act personal information that is required by the University for Academic Appointment Competitions will be collected. For further details see:

https://www.sfu.ca/vpacademic/faculty_openings/collection_notice.html