

Tenure-Track Faculty Position in Adult Clinical Psychology: Intervention and Program Development, Mental Health Promotion in Diverse Groups (Assistant or Associate Professor)

Position # 002103TT-2020-PSY

The University of Windsor's Department of Psychology invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in the area of Adult Clinical Psychology: Intervention and Program Development, Mental Health Promotion in Diverse Groups, at the Assistant or Associate Professor level, commencing as early as July 1, 2020. This position is subject to final budgetary approval.

In addition to serving a large undergraduate population, the Psychology Department offers doctoral degrees in Clinical Psychology and Applied Social Psychology. Our CPA-accredited Clinical Psychology Program offers specialized training in three areas: Adult Clinical, Child Clinical, and life-span Clinical Neuropsychology. The department has the largest doctoral program on campus, an energetic and collaborative culture of scholarship, and operates a state-of-the-art Psychological Services and Research Centre. For further details, visit our website at <http://www.uwindsor.ca/psychology>.

Candidates will have completed a PhD in clinical or counselling psychology, from a CPA- or APA-accredited program with pre-doctoral or post-doctoral specialty training. If not presently registered in Ontario, successful candidates must be eligible for registration with the College of Psychologists of Ontario (CPO) and must initiate the registration process within the first six months of hire, as registration in Ontario is required for all clinical positions. Successful candidates will be committed to the scientist-practitioner model. Within their area of expertise, candidates will demonstrate research productivity, the capacity to develop a strong research program, and attract external research funding. They will have undergraduate teaching experience and the ability to teach undergraduate and graduate courses broadly related to their area of expertise; be able to supervise undergraduate and graduate student research; contribute to the service and administrative activities of the clinical program, the department, and the university; and provide clinical training and supervision to graduate students through on-campus practica at our Psychological Services and Research Centre (PSRC).

Candidates will demonstrate expertise related to mental health issues in diverse groups (e.g., Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, sexual minorities, refugees/immigrants, other visible and cultural minorities), and in adapting/developing interventions and programs to meet specific needs in such groups. In addition to the general requirements listed above, applicants must be competent to work with adults, and must be prepared and competent to teach graduate courses in psychotherapy, diversity issues in clinical practice, and other clinical courses.

Application Requirements

- a letter of application, including a statement of citizenship/immigration status;
- a detailed and current curriculum vitae (for CV items listed as "in press" or "accepted," please include official documentation confirming acceptance);
- a statement of research interests;
- up to three (3) samples of published or in-review scholarly articles or papers presented at professional conferences, including (if applicable) clear indications of your contribution to any jointly authored pieces;
- a teaching dossier or evidence of teaching effectiveness that may include sample course syllabi/outlines, teaching evaluations, and a statement of teaching philosophy and interests (resources and templates for completing a teaching dossier can be found at <http://www.uwindsor.ca/ctl/390/teaching-and-learning-resources>);
- official PhD transcripts and certification of degree (copies are acceptable); and
- three (3) current letters of reference forwarded directly by the referees to the Department Head, at the address or email listed below.

Only those applicants selected for interview will be contacted. The short-listed candidates may be invited to provide further information in support of their applications. To ensure full consideration, complete an online application (<http://www.uwindsor.ca/facultypositions>) found on the job advertisement, and ensure letters of reference are submitted by the deadline date of August 15, 2019. Applications may be considered after the deadline date; however, acceptance of late submissions is at the discretion of the appointments committee.
