

Psychology Department
Probationary Faculty Appointment: Assistant Professor (Tenure–Track)

Established in 1863, Huron University College is the founding college of Western University and offers liberal arts and theological programs. Huron is distinguished by its small classes and teaching excellence in a personal, supportive community. Huron is committed to providing its students with an engaging and inspiring educational experience that gives them a distinct advantage throughout their entire lives and challenges them to be leaders with heart.

The Department of Psychology at Huron University College invites applications for a tenure-track appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor in Cognitive Psychology, subject to final budgetary approval. The appointment rank will commence July 1, 2020. All applications will be considered with preference given to those candidates with an established research background in any area of cognitive psychology. The ability to teach research design and statistics at the undergraduate level would be considered an asset.

The successful candidate will join a vibrant and tight-knit community of faculty who are committed to delivering a high-quality undergraduate experience in a small, liberal arts context. The successful candidate will be expected to teach 2/3 teaching load of undergraduate courses per year (including a share of our team-taught Introductory Psychology course), maintain a research program that is inclusive of undergraduate researchers, and engage in the administrative life of the department and university.

Applicants should have a completed Ph.D., evidence of excellence in undergraduate teaching and an established research record in their field. Applicants should send a curriculum vitae, teaching dossier (including recent teaching evaluations), research dossier showing evidence of research trajectory, and a list of three referees with contact information. Referees of candidates who enter the next stage of the search process will be contacted by the search committee at that time.

Applications should be sent as an email attachment to:

Review of applications will begin December 15, 2019 and continue until the position is filled.

Huron University College values its place in an interconnected world and desires to reflect this value, acknowledging our responsibility to strive towards a diverse and equitable employment and educational environment that recognizes the inherent worth and dignity of every person. We welcome applications from women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity.

Applications from all qualified individuals are invited; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given hiring priority. We thank all applicants for their interest, only those selected to proceed in the competition will be contacted. Should you require accommodation in making an application, please contact Human Resources at 519-438-7224, extension 703, or jhenry56@huron.uwo.ca.
