

Continuing Faculty Position – Lecturer in Psychology

The Department of Psychology in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences at Simon Fraser University (SFU) invites applications for one continuing faculty position at the rank of Lecturer to begin as early as July 1, 2020. [For more information about SFU's teaching faculty ranks please see the SFUFA/SFU Collective Agreement: <http://at.sfu.ca/nwPksr>].

We are seeking candidates who have an interest and a demonstrated ability in teaching courses at the undergraduate level. The ideal applicant will have experience teaching large classes in Introductory Psychology and in Research Methods. Experience teaching upper-division courses would be an asset. Applicants should be familiar with delivering blended or online courses, and should be knowledgeable about curriculum development and learning outcomes within psychology. They should provide evidence of educational leadership, or the potential for leadership. The successful candidate will be expected to teach at any of SFU's three metro-Vancouver campuses (Burnaby, Surrey, and downtown Vancouver). Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Psychology (any APA Division) by the time of appointment or shortly thereafter. This is an entry-level position. Only those holding or those eligible to be promoted to the rank will be considered.

Review of applications will commence December 15, 2019, with priority given to applications received by that date. To determine whether applications are still being accepted, please visit the Department of Psychology Job Postings website at <http://at.sfu.ca/gtBinL>. The position is subject to the availability of funding.

Applications must include:

- a) a cover letter;
- b) a teaching statement and dossier including course outlines, lecture materials, teaching evaluations, etc.;
- c) a curriculum vitae including details of all previous teaching experience;
- d) the names of three academic referees who will be submitting letters of reference.

Application materials should be submitted via email to psyclec@sfu.ca, citing the candidate's name and position applied for in the subject line. Please arrange for your referees to email confidential letters of reference directly to psyclec@sfu.ca.

Simon Fraser University is consistently ranked among the top comprehensive universities in Canada. More information about the Psychology Department and the University can be found on our website at <http://www.sfu.ca/psychology>. The main campus is located on Burnaby Mountain in Greater Vancouver. Vancouver is a scenic waterfront city located minutes from the mountains and a wide range of outdoor activities. It has a reputation as a clean, safe, multicultural and ethnically diverse city, and is one of the very top cities in the world in which to live and work.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. SFU is an equity employer and encourages applications from all qualified individuals including women, persons with disabilities, visible minorities, Indigenous Peoples, people of all sexual orientations and gender identities, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of the university.

Inquiries about this position may be directed to:

Dr. V. Gordon Rose,
Chair, Lecturer Search Committee
Dept. of Psychology, Simon Fraser University
8888 University Drive

Burnaby, BC V5A 1S6 Canada
vgrose@sfu.ca

Under the authority of the University Act, personal information that is required by the University for academic appointment competitions will be collected. For further information see http://www.sfu.ca/vpacademic/faculty_openings/collection_notice.html.