Registered Psychologist

If you are a Registered Psychologist with a passion for helping and desire to be part of a welcoming team of skilled clinical professionals, we encourage you to explore the benefits of working with our agency in one of our exceptional programs. At Ranch Ehrlo we are proud to be recognized as one of Saskatchewan's Top Employers for the 9th consecutive year.

Ehrlo Counselling Services and the Clinical Assessment and Resource Services program at Ranch Ehrlo Society are currently accepting applications for Registered Psychologists to join their team of highly skilled and compassionate professionals who share a desire for helping others through quality clinical service delivery. This is an opportunity to provide supportive clinical counselling and specialized clinical assessment services while maintaining a flexible schedule. You would have an opportunity to provide comprehensive evidence based clinical services in a respectful and sensitive manner. Our culture embraces educational development and our collaborative team approach naturally lends to professional clinical growth and support.

Ehrlo Counselling Services is a part of Ranch Ehrlo Society, a non-profit organization dedicated to providing a range of quality assessment, treatment, education, and counselling services in the community that improve the lives of children, youth, and their families. Ehrlo Counselling Services provides preventative and early intervention services to the community through high quality counselling, training, and consultation services.

The Clinical Assessment and Resource Services Program at Ranch Ehrlo Society works within a collaborative team approach to provide a wide variety of clinical/diagnostic assessments for children, youth and adults with developmental and trauma-based needs. Specialized assessments include FASD assessments, autism assessments, cognitive assessments, trauma & mental health evaluations as well as resiliency and risk assessments. In addition to formal psychological assessments, registered psychologists also have opportunities to provide counselling, professional consultation, training, and mentoring services to the clinical, residential, and educational teams at Ranch Ehrlo Society.

If you are a Registered Psychologist with APE in good standing with the Saskatchewan College of Psychologists and interested in contributing to our culture of holistic counselling and assessment treatment services while working alongside a team of collaborative and welcoming professionals, submit your application by June 14, 2020. Individuals eligible for Provisional Licensure Status with the Saskatchewan College of Psychologists may be considered.

Ideally, candidates will have the following;

- A license as a Registered Psychologist in good standing with the Saskatchewan College of Psychologists including Authorized Practice Endorsement (APE) designation.
- Experience conducting a variety of formal psychological assessments and developing recommendations for treatment and service delivery based on best practice research.

- Strong counselling skills and experience including sound theoretical understanding and application of various evidenced-based clinical interventions.
- Knowledge and understanding of psychological trauma and its impact
