Ministry of Children and Family Development
Langley

Licensed Psychologist, Youth Forensic Psychiatric Services
$85,997.38 - $107,794.73 annually

Applicants who do not fully meet the required qualifications may be considered for this position, but at a lower classification.

Make a difference in this rewarding career opportunity!

Youth Forensic Psychiatric Services (YFPS) is mandated to provide inpatient and outpatient court-ordered and court-related assessment and treatment services to young persons pursuant to the Youth Criminal Justice Act as well as other relevant federal and provincial statutes. YFPS also provides services to young persons found unfit to stand trial and those youth found not criminally responsible due to a mental disorder (NCRMD), pursuant to the Criminal Code of Canada.

As part of the Youth Forensic Psychiatric Services Mental Health Team, this position provides comprehensive independent psychological assessments for youth who have offended, in the community, in the Inpatient Assessment Unit or in custody.

This role provides consultation and clinical direction for multi-disciplinary teams involved in specialized counselling and therapy; provides supervision to junior psychologists and clinical psychology students; works with learning institutions in major research undertakings and, represents psychology addressing psychological issues in the planning, development and implementation of assessment and treatment program initiatives.

The BC Public Service is committed to creating a diverse workplace to represent the population we serve and to better meet the needs of our citizens. Consider joining our team and being part of an innovative, inclusive and rewarding workplace.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Ph. D. in Clinical Psychology and registered with the College of Psychologists of British Columbia. Applicants with a Ph. D. and are eligible for registration with the College of Psychologists of British Columbia may be considered for appointment at a lower classification.
  NB: As a condition of continued employment, such an appointee is required to become registered as a Licensed Psychologist.

  NOTE: If this education was obtained outside of Canada, you need to confirm it has been assessed for equivalency through the International Credential Evaluation Services (ICES). You must provide a basic report by the closing date of this posting to be considered.

For more information and to apply online by November 5, 2020, please go to:
https://bcpublicservice.hua.hrsmart.com/hr/ats/Posting/view/71878