

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY PRIVATE PSYCHOLOGY PRACTICE TORONTO, ONTARIO

The principal owner and operator of a Toronto psychology practice that has been providing psychological services, including psychological/personal injury assessments since 1992, is seeking a registered psychologist interested in performing Personal Injury/Insurer Examinations primarily in the auto insurance industry with a view to taking over the practice in the future. This is an active, full time practice that has been developed over many years and provides a steady income. The practice typically has employed five to seven associates over the years, including psychologists and psychological associates. Training would be offered if required. Either a recent member of the College of Psychologists or a more seasoned practitioner would be suitable for this opportunity.

For additional information, contact compass2@idirect.com