

Clinical Psychologist

Mental Health and Addiction Services 1.0 FTE

We are an Infant, Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service that pride ourselves on delivering specialised care to whānau and our community.

We are looking for 2x 1.0 FTE experienced Clinical Psychologists to join our team, where a strong cultural emphasis underpins all we that we do. This position will focus on supporting children and whānau in distress, while utilising the skills of your profession.

We can offer attractive remuneration packages, relocation costs, accommodation costs and flexible hours. You will be required to be motivated to contribute to service development, quality improvement projects and leadership roles along with undertaking your clinical duties.

Whilst living and working in Tairāwhiti a great work life balance can effortlessly be maintained. If beautiful beaches, nature walks, a relaxed small city vibe with a strong Māori cultural identity is what you are looking for, then we would like to hear from you.
