University of Waterloo’s Campus Wellness team is growing! We are looking to add a talented and engaged Clinical Psychologist to our innovative team. This role offers a competitive salary and an opportunity to practice in a dynamic multi-disciplinary setting at a post-secondary institution.

This role offers opportunities to work in various practice areas, including intervention, assessments, program evaluation and consultation with a range of clinical professions. In addition, the University’s Campus Wellness department offers a vibrant clinical training environment which includes participation in the CPA-accredited Waterloo Region Psychology Consortium.

Qualified candidates must have a doctoral degree in psychology and be registered as a psychologist member in good standing a designated professional college (adult population competency required). Candidates in supervised practice will be considered. Candidates will carry appropriate liability insurance as outlined by the College of Psychologists of Ontario.

The University of Waterloo respects, appreciates, and encourages diversity. We welcome and encourage applications from all qualified individuals regardless of race, ethnic origin, religion, age, gender, sexual orientation, ability or disability.
