

Assistant Professor of Psychology – Social OR Clinical (Tenure Track)

ABOUT ST. MARY'S UNIVERSITY:

St. Mary's University is an innovative teaching and research university that provides affordable, accredited and highly valued degrees in the Liberal Arts, Sciences and Education. St. Mary's is the only unaffiliated Catholic university in western Canada and celebrates over 30 years as an educational institution.

Located on a historic site in Calgary, Alberta, our students are inspired to combine academics with a passionate commitment to ethics, social justice and respect for diversity of opinion and belief. St. Mary's has over 1000 full- and part-time students, 150 full- and part-time faculty and staff, and an average class size of 25. The university has grown by over 50% in the last seven years alone.

POSITION OUTLINE:

Applications are invited for a tenure track position in psychology. The successful candidate will have a background in Social OR Clinical psychology and must be able to teach courses in statistics and research methodology, and introductory psychology. In addition, the successful candidate will teach courses related to their area of expertise, including at least one of the following: Social Psychology, Industrial and Organizational Psychology, Psychology of Prejudice, Personality, Abnormal Psychology, Advanced Studies in Clinical Psychology. St. Mary's offers both research and teaching stream appointments. The successful candidate will be appointed to the teaching-service stream, which carries a 4/4 teaching load. Following 3 years on the teaching-service stream, the candidate will have the opportunity to move to the research-teaching-service stream, which carries a 3/3 teaching load.

(Course descriptions may be found online at <https://www.stmu.ca/universitycalendar/>)

*Due to the pandemic teaching may or may not occur online.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Instruction and assessment of students in the relevant course content, adhering to learning outcomes.
- Maintain excellent communication with students, staff, faculty, and program coordinator.
- Supervise Honours students.
- Participate, contribute, show initiative in issues related to program development.
- Productive engagement in university committee work.
- Engage in research.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- A PhD in psychology (must have by date of appointment)
- Previous teaching experience.
- Record of research and publication or strong potential.

COMPENSATION:

St. Mary's University offers a competitive compensation package and comprehensive benefits program. Compensation will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

APPLICATIONS:

Applicants are to submit 1) a cover letter that includes a statement of citizenship/immigration status, 2) a detailed and current curriculum vitae, 3) a brief teaching statement that includes examples of syllabi and teaching evaluations, 4) a brief research statement that includes examples of research/publications if available, and 5) arrange for three letters of reference. Applications must be sent directly via email to careers@stmu.ca with the Subject Line of: "Assistant Professor of Psychology" by end of day on December 1st, 2021. We are unable to accept applications and dossiers through third party platforms. Short listed candidates will be notified in January 2022.

St. Mary's University is passionate about building and sustaining an equitable and inclusive work environment for students, staff and faculty, where diversity in all areas is celebrated and valued. We encourage any and all qualified individuals to apply. Priority will be given to Canadians and permanent residents of Canada.

We thank all applicants for their interest, however only those applicants being interviewed will be contacted. No phone calls please.

St. Mary's University • 14500 Bannister Road SE • Calgary, AB • T2X 1Z4 • Fax: 403.254.3774 • STMU.ca