Responsibilities

Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, is seeking an outstanding Child and Adolescent Psychologist specializing in mood disorders to join the Department of Psychiatry and Psychology.

The successful applicant will join an energetic and collegial group of twelve (12) child psychologists, twelve (12) child psychiatrists, and many allied health clinicians within the Department of Psychiatry and Psychology. The primary role of the psychologist is to develop, evaluate, and co-lead a child and adolescent mood program that provides comprehensive and multi-disciplinary care for children and adolescents. Clinical activities include co-leading an intensive outpatient treatment program for youth with mood and emotion regulation difficulties, conducting multidisciplinary evaluations of complex pediatric mood disorders, and providing and supervising ongoing treatment for youth with mood disorders. Interested applicants can also join an initiative to develop a digital platform to increase access to evidence-based mental health care for children and adolescents. Mayo Clinic offers opportunities in leadership, program development, and research. Educational and supervision opportunities are abundant within the Medical Psychology Post-Doctoral Fellowship Program and with other trainees. The position carries an academic appointment in the Mayo Clinic College of Medicine and Science, rank commensurate with experience.

Diversity and inclusion are integral to Mayo Clinic's mission to provide excellent, culturally relevant care in a welcoming environment to patients from a wide variety of backgrounds. We aim to diversify our workforce to represent the communities we serve and continue to create an inclusive work environment where differences are valued, allowing individuals to achieve and contribute to their fullest potential. This commitment to diversity is woven into the fabric of Mayo Clinic — we embrace these values as we serve our patients, employees, students, suppliers, and communities. Become part of the legacy that embraces our differences and enables us to provide the best care to patients from all over the world.

Why Mayo Clinic?
