WHO WE ARE

BPPC, TI & TPHC are established in the community under the direction of Dr. Anna Baranowsky a registered clinical psychologist with the College of Psychologists of Ontario. She has Diplomate Status with the American Academy of Experts in Traumatic Stress (<https://www.aaets.org>) and the National Centre for Crisis Management. She maintains the role of president with Bear Psychology, the Traumatology Institute (Canada) Training & Development Inc. as well as the charity The Trauma Practice for Healthy Communities.

Our practice encourages personal and professional skills development, collegiality, and offers a supportive environment in which to do your best work. Consultation and supervision are available, as required to expand and enhance your clinical areas of practice. With BPPC, TI and TPHC activities the qualified candidate will engage in a broad range of career expanding opportunities.

At BPPC we advocate for increased awareness about Trauma Informed Care and the unique utilization of a Somatic based Cognitive Behavioral Trauma Therapy within a Tri-Phasic model.

Dr. Baranowsky is the author of the best-seller Trauma Practice: Tools for Stabilization & Recovery as well as What Is PTSD? 3 Steps for Healing Trauma and the online Trauma Recovery Program (for adjunctive and self-guided trauma care).

Candidates will have access to all online resources to support their development and understanding of our clinical care approaches:
