Broadview Psychology is currently seeking a psychologist to join our thriving and compassionate practice on a part-time or full-time basis. We are a team of clinicians who offer assessments and treatment to children, adolescents, adults, families and couples. We are looking for someone who wants to join our strong team of clinicians who work closely together providing comprehensive and adherent DBT, as well as providing CBT, ACT and EFT services. We are a clinic that emphasizes training, collaboration, and community.

Qualifications:

- Doctoral degree in psychology
- Registered with the CPO or eligible for registration
- Training and experience in intervention with children, adolescents, adults, families, or couples
- Training and experience in providing CBT, ACT and/or DBT
- Expertise and interest in conducting and supervising assessments (would be an asset).

Hours and Location: Flexible hours with a minimum of three days per week in person from our Toronto and Stouffville clinics, with some option for virtual service delivery.

Benefits of joining the Broadview Psychology Team:

- Participation in an established and growing practice.
- Participation in weekly consultation team meetings that provide education, stimulation, consultation and support.
- Extensive opportunities and support for continuing education.
- Opportunity to be involved in a range of activities including assessment, intervention, groups, program evaluation, supervision/consultation, program development, workshops, and training.
- Opportunity to grow, develop and take on new roles in the practice.
- Considerable administrative and practical support to associates.
- Combination of virtual and in person work in three possible locations.
- Involvement in events and activities that enhance the team's cohesiveness and connection.

Contact: Interested psychologists should contact admin at admin@broadviewpsychology.com. Please include a cover letter and CV.
