

JOIN OUR TEAM!

Are you a self-motivated, self-directed, passionate, experienced Psychologist looking to join a private practice? If yes, we want you!

About us:

We are female lead private practices in Toronto looking for Psychologists or Psychological Associates to join our growing teams.

We are passionate about supporting our community by providing services that suit their needs. We work individually with no third party contracts, and are committed to the learning and growth of our team members.

What you will be doing:

The right candidate will be responsible for developing treatment plans, providing therapy services to adults and collaborating with colleagues to ensure that clients receive the best care possible. We're looking for a professional with a strong background in clinical psychology and the ability to work in a team-oriented environment.

What we offer:

- Competitive compensation
- A warm, supportive and collegial atmosphere
- Monthly clinical case consultation
- Training opportunities including a monthly lunch and learn and workshops on various topics
- Administrative support
- We are a paperless office and offer electronic software for progress notes, scheduling, billing, and virtual appointments using Owl
- Flexible scheduling and caseload
- Work can be done virtually
- A consistent and established referral flow

What you bring to the team:

- Ph.D. or M.A. in Clinical or Counselling Psychology,
- 3 to 5 years of counselling experience
- Registered or eligible to Register with The College of Psychologists of Ontario

- Competency in working with adults on an individual basis
- Commitment to evidence-based practices in different therapeutic approaches
- Experience working with adolescents, couples and families is an advantage
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Able to work independently with good time management and organizational skills

We are Committed to Diversity, Inclusion, Accessibility, and Anti-Racism:

We are committed to building a workforce that reflects the communities we serve and to promote a diverse, anti-racist, inclusive, accessible, merit-based, respectful and equitable workplace.

We invite all interested individuals to apply and encourage applications from people with disabilities, Indigenous, Black, and racialized individuals, as well as people from diverse ethnic and cultural origins, sexual orientations, gender identities and expressions.
