At Saint Mary's University, you will be surrounded by a talented and dedicated team of professionals committed to accessibility, diversity, and the provision of a positive and supportive learning environment. We recognize the importance of the contribution and growth of each individual in the University's success. We are currently looking to fill two Limited Term Appointments of Assistant Professor to join our Department of Psychology team, commencing August 4, 2023 (8-month teaching contract with a 4-week paid preparatory period).

The successful applicant will join a 22-member Department. The Department has an applied focus with major and honours curriculum (B.Sc. and B.A.), a M.Sc. in Applied Psychology (Industrial/Organizational Psychology stream and Forensic Psychology stream), a Ph.D. program in Industrial/Organizational Psychology, and a certificate program in Human Resource Management. Department members also participate in the CN Centre for Occupational Health and Safety, the Science Faculty's M.Sc. in Applied Science program, and the interdisciplinary Master of Applied Health Services Research program. For additional information about the University and the Department, please see our website at: <https://www.smu.ca/psychology/index.html>.

Job Information and Responsibilities

Under the direction of the Dean of Science, the Assistant Professor will:

- Contribute to teaching in areas such as Forensic/Clinical Psychology and Industrial/Organization Psychology.
- Be expected to teach three courses per semester.
- Be expected to be physically present in Nova Scotia.
- Along with meeting their teaching responsibilities, the successful candidate will be expected to collaborate with other department colleagues and contribute to the Department's programs.

Note: Candidates should present evidence, commensurate with experience, of their teaching ability, a letter outlining the courses they are interested in teaching (course descriptions are available here: <https://smu.ca/academics/psychology-courses.html>), and evidence of their scholarly productivity.

Experience and Education Requirements

To be the successful Assistant Professor you will have:

- A Ph.D. in Psychology or be near completion of the degree.
