Ministry of Children and Family Development
Langley

Licensed Psychologist
$97,175.34 - $123,151.67 annually
Hybrid

Youth Forensic Psychiatric Services (YFPS) is mandated to provide inpatient and outpatient Court-ordered and Court-related assessment and treatment services to young persons pursuant to the Youth Criminal Justice Act as well as other relevant federal and provincial statutes. YFPS also provides services to young persons found unfit to stand trial and those youth found not criminally responsible due to a mental disorder (NCRMD), pursuant to the Criminal Code of Canada.

As a Licensed Psychologist, you will be reporting to the Regional or Clinic Coordinator and as part of the Youth Forensic Psychiatric Services Mental Health Team. You will provide comprehensive independent psychological assessments and treatment for youth who have offended, in the community, in the Inpatient Assessment Unit or in custody. You will also provide consultation and clinical direction for multi-disciplinary teams involved in specialized counselling and therapy; provide supervision to junior psychologists and clinical psychology students; work with learning institutions in major research undertakings and, represent psychology addressing psychological issues in the planning, development and implementation of assessment and treatment program initiatives.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Ph. D. in Clinical Psychology and registered with the College of Psychologists of British Columbia. (Applicants with a Ph. D. and eligible for registration with the College of Psychologists of British Columbia may be considered for appointment at a lower classification. As a condition of continued employment, such an appointee is required to become registered as a Licensed Psychologist.)
  - NOTE: If your degree was obtained outside of Canada, you need to confirm it has been assessed for equivalency through the International Credential Evaluation Services (ICES). You must provide a basic report by the closing date of this posting to be considered.

For more information and to apply online by September 6, 2023, please go to:
https://bcpublicservice.hua.hrsmart.com/hr/ats/Posting/view/103964