Job Title: Psychologist with LGBTQ2+ and Trauma Specialization

Location: Whitehorse, Yukon

Company: Boreal Clinic

About Us: Boreal Clinic is a well-established allied health provider offering a wide range of integrated services in the beautiful Whitehorse, Yukon area. Our clinic is dedicated to providing comprehensive care for our diverse community. We are currently seeking a highly skilled Psychologist with expertise in trauma and LGBTQ2+ issues to join our collaborative team of healthcare professionals.

Job Description: As a Psychologist at Boreal Clinic you will play a crucial role in our holistic approach to patient care. You will work alongside other healthcare specialists to address the unique needs of individuals who have experienced trauma, with a specific focus on LGBTQ2+ clients. Your responsibilities will include:

Key Responsibilities:

- Conducting trauma assessments and collaborating with other healthcare professionals to develop comprehensive treatment plans.
- Providing evidence-based trauma therapy, utilizing techniques such as EMDR, CBT, and DBT, tailored to individual client needs.
- Offering LGBTQ2+-affirmative therapy, addressing issues related to identity, discrimination, and mental health within the LGBTQ2+ community.
- Collaborating closely with our multidisciplinary team to ensure coordinated and patient-centered care.
- Maintaining accurate and confidential patient records in compliance with ethical and legal standards.
- Staying current with the latest research and best practices in trauma therapy and LGBTQ2+ psychology.

Qualifications:

- Doctoral degree in psychology (Ph.D. or Psy.D.).
- Eligible for licensure in a Canadian province.
- Specialization in trauma therapy with a focus on evidence-based interventions.
- Expertise in LGBTQ2+ issues and experience working with LGBTQ2+ patients.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- Ability to provide culturally sensitive and affirming care.
- Commitment to ongoing professional development and staying informed about relevant research.

Benefits:

- Competitive salary, commensurate with experience.
- Flexible working hours to accommodate patient needs.
- Supportive and collaborative work environment with access to a multidisciplinary team.
- Opportunities for professional development and training.
- Health and dental benefits package.
- Relocation assistance, if applicable.

How to Apply: If you are a compassionate and dedicated Psychologist with specialist in trauma and a passion for serving the LGBTQ+ community and are excited about the opportunity to work within a multidisciplinary clinic, please submit your cover letter, resume, and references to evie@borealclinic.com. In your cover letter, please highlight your experience in trauma therapy and LGBTQ+ psychology.

At Boreal Clinic we embrace diversity and are committed to fostering an inclusive workplace that mirrors the diversity of our patient population. We encourage individuals from all backgrounds and identities to apply and join us in delivering compassionate and comprehensive care to our community.

Join our multidisciplinary team and contribute to the well-being of our patients by helping them heal from trauma and empowering LGBTQ+ individuals to lead healthier lives. Your expertise will make a meaningful difference in our collaborative healthcare setting. Apply today!
