

Qualicum School District

TEACHING POSITION

Assignment: School Psychologist

The assignment may change due to the itinerant nature of the position, or to meet the needs of the school's educational program, grade organization, and/or enrolment.

1.00 FTE TEMPORARY

Commencing April 24, 2024 until June 30, 2024 or upon notification that the temporary position will end earlier due to budgetary issues or declining enrollment.

The successful candidate will be expected to:

- Use valid psycho-educational, formal and informal, assessment methods for assessing referred students;
- Demonstrate knowledge of current, effective assessment measures;
- Facilitate the use of a variety of assessment data for student program planning;
- Collaborate with school staff regarding developmentally appropriate strategies, assessments, and interventions for students;
- Interpret data for the appropriate identification, placement, or referral for medical professional assessment/interventions;
- Serve as a resource for families and school teams to assist in meeting the needs of students;
- Work with community agencies in providing assessment data and recommendations for student identification and transition planning.

The successful candidate will have the following qualifications:

- A Master's degree in school/educational psychology or a related field with a focus on school psychology;
- Registration by May 1, 2024 in the College of Psychologists of British Columbia (CPBC), with special training in school psychology;
- Coursework, training and ability to administer and interpret individual intelligence and curriculum-based tests;
- Experience working in the education system, with knowledge of instruction and assessment;
- Experience developing effective recommendations to assist teachers and parents in working with students who experience challenges in the school setting.

The starting annual salary for this teaching position ranges from $57,972 to $106,217, with placement on the range based on length of service and qualifications in accordance with the collective agreement.

Qualified applicants may apply online on Make a Future at <https://bit.ly/3I7vIHh>.