

Private Practice Opportunity in Victoria, BC

Are you a psychologist looking to build a fulfilling private practice in one of the most beautiful cities in North America? Vancouver Island Psychological Services (VIPS) is excited to invite doctoral-level psychologists to join our dynamic and collegial team in Victoria, British Columbia.

We are a well-established and growing private practice with two locations in Victoria, offering a broad range of psychological assessment and therapy services. We have opportunities for psychologists with a wide range of clinical interests and experience, including those passionate about working with children, teens, adults, and older adults. Our team serves a variety of clients, including a growing number of first responders and public safety personnel.

Whether you're drawn to therapy, assessment, or a mix of both, VIPS offers the flexibility and support to help you thrive professionally. We are proud to support autonomy, professional development, and the opportunity to shape your ideal caseload.

Why Join VIPS?

- High client demand and a strong referral base
- Full autonomy over caseload and scheduling
- Robust admin support and access to psychometrist and testing materials
- Collaborative team environment with regular case consultation and continuing education
- Excellent earning potential
- Free supervision for those pursuing registration with the College of Psychologists of BC

Why Victoria?

Located on Vancouver Island's southern coast, Victoria is a stunning city that combines natural beauty, urban sophistication, and a welcoming community. With ocean views, mild winters, and year-round outdoor recreation, Victoria offers a lifestyle that's hard to beat.

Ready to make the move or learn more? We'd love to hear from you.
