As part of a multi-year expansion to our CPA-accredited clinical program, the Department of Psychology, Faculty of Arts, at the University of Manitoba invites applications for a full-time Probationary (tenure-track) position at the Assistant Professor rank commencing July 1st 2027, or on a date mutually agreed upon. Salary will be commensurate with experience and qualifications. Review of applications will begin on October 21, 2026, and will continue until the position is filled.

The Department seeks an emerging scholar with a commitment to excellence in teaching, research, and clinical practice. Exceptional candidates will be considered with the responsibilities and qualifications outlined below:

Responsibilities

The successful candidate will be expected to develop a productive and internationally recognized research program, obtain external funding, teach primarily graduate-level and some undergraduate-level courses, supervise graduate and undergraduate research, supervise clinical practice, and contribute to service. Alternative delivery modes of teaching (e.g. online instruction) may be available. The standard weighting of responsibilities for full-time equivalent faculty members in the Faculty of Arts is 40% research, 40% teaching, and 20% service. The normal teaching load is 12 credit hours or 4 courses per year (with teaching release for new faculty in the first 2 years, and for faculty who are principal investigators on Tri-Agency grants). Practicum supervision is credited at 1.5 teaching credit hours per supervised student.

Qualifications

Candidates should have completed a PhD or equivalent doctoral degree by the time of appointment from a CPA or APA accredited psychology program with an approved internship. The successful candidate will be expected to obtain registration as a Clinical Psychologist in Manitoba. Successful candidates close to completion of their doctoral degree may be appointed to a term position at the rank of Lecturer until successful completion of their degree, at which time they will begin their probationary appointment as an Assistant Professor.

Applicants are expected to have demonstrated excellence in research in any area of clinical psychology, broadly defined, with a track record of peer-reviewed publications, presentations at national and international conferences, and the potential to attract external grant funding. The successful candidate will also have demonstrated potential for excellence in teaching and clinical supervision. All areas of clinically relevant research and teaching will be considered, with priority given to applicants with teaching and/or clinical expertise with Indigenous mental health, child/youth mental health, and/or assessment. Evidence of clinical practice, research and/or teaching with diverse populations is an asset.

About the University of Manitoba

Founded in 1877, the University of Manitoba is located in Winnipeg, Canada on the Fort Garry and Bannatyne campuses and is a member of U15, an association of fifteen leading research universities across Canada.
